Blessing Bags

Many people took one of these bags to reflect on blessings during Lent. Now that Easter is here and we celebrate the greatest blessing of all, it is time to collect in the "blessings". Please let me have these (cheques payable to Museum Street Methodist Church if you wish to pay by that method) and remember that all proceeds will go to our efforts for TWAM (Tools with a Mission).

With thanks in anticipation.

Colin Westren

ORFORD NESS

This unique and fascinating place is a designated National Nature Reserve.

It also has a number of other national and international designations, including being a Ramsar Site (the name given to wetland sites with special international significance).

To hear more about these designations, please bring a friend (or two) to GET TOGETHER on Tuesday 10 April.

Inspired by Proverbs 17:22

A cheerful heart is good medicine, but a crushed spirit dries up the bones.

The minister of a small country chapel asked his property committee if they would consider installing a chandelier in the chapel. They met to discuss the issue at length and reported back to him that they had decided against the idea for three reasons:

- The secretary didn't know how to spell it in the minutes.
- If they bought one they had no-body who could play it.
- They thought the money could be better used to improve the lighting in the church.

Items for inclusion in next week's notices should be with Mike Parker by 8 p.m. on Thursday. Telephone 01473 274321. Email: parker.mj@btinternet.com
